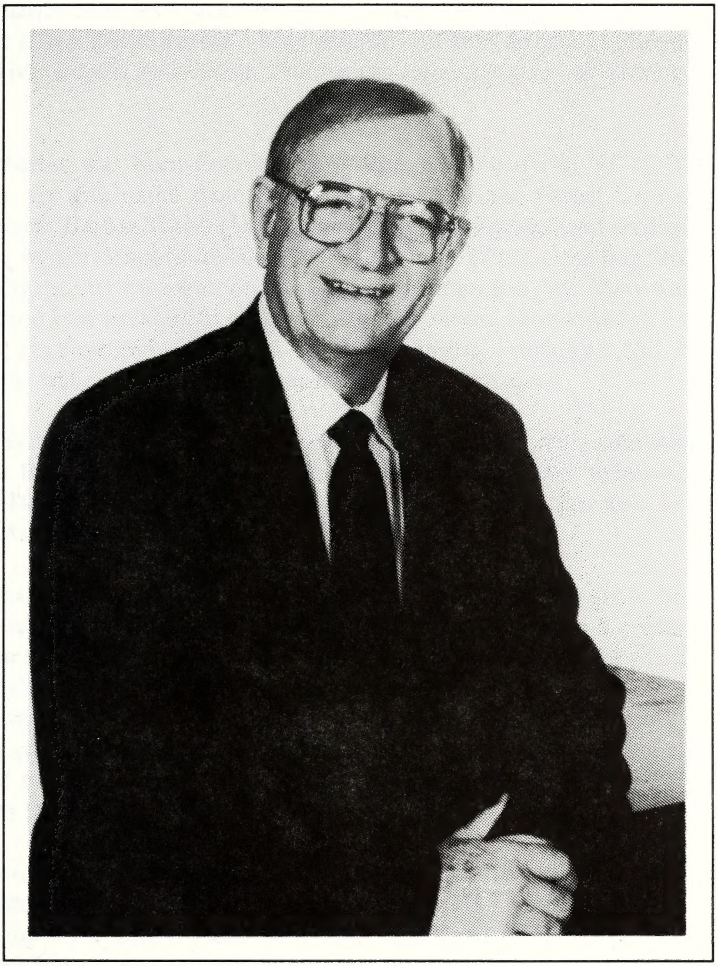
In Memoriam



Charles Aurenus Stevens
(1924-1991)

Executive Director of New South River Baptist Association
(1953-1991)

Charles Aurenus Stevens died tragically at the age of sixty-seven (67) as a result of a DUI driver just six weeks after he retired as Executive Director of New South River Baptist Association after twenty-eight (28) years of faithful, dedicated service.

Charles was born February 23, 1924, in Smithfield, NC to Bettie Mae Stevens. He graduated from Smithfield High, Wake Forest University, and Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. He was licensed and ordained into the ministry by the Smithfield First Baptist Church. While attending Wake Forest University, he met a student, Lucille Mabry, of Albemarle, NC. They were married in 1950 and later became the parents of Jennifer Myers, Brasstown, NC; Charles A. Stevens, Jr., Fayetteville, NC; and, Jocelyn Andrews, Smithfield, NC. In addition to these he was survived by four grandchildren and one sister.

Rev. Stevens served as pastor of Burnell Baptist, Johnston Association; Clement Baptist, Beulah Association; East Side Baptist, Dan Valley Association; Bonnie Doone Baptist, and as the Executive Director of the New South River Baptist Association.

Charles Stevens loved and was loved by thousands. His goals were to be a faithful servant of God, to be Christlike, and to lead others to a greater depth of Christian living. Regardless of his schedule, he always had time for people. He was able to relate to the poor and rich alike, and had great respect for women in God's service and Kingdom. Not only was he a dreamer, but he was also a thinker, a planner, and a doer. He sought new and creative ways to carry out the will of God and will be remembered for his great faith in people and their ability to make decisions for the Glory of God.

People respected him for his honesty, trustworthiness, confidential counselling, understanding and tenderness. He taught love for family, love for the church, love for God's Word, love for Christ, and the importance of prayer. Reverend Stevens was a man of faith who lived by Matt. 6:33, "Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and His righteousness." He sought divine guidance through prayer, believing that praying Christians could make a difference in this world under the leadership of the Holy Spirit.

Not only was his death a loss to his loved ones, but also to his co-workers, and to his many, many friends. Our loss is heaven's gain.

It is with grateful hearts that the 1990-91 Minutes for the New South River Baptist Association be dedicated in loving memory of Charles A. Stevens.

He reported that until his resignation, Ricky Spell had held the check book and records to the center. A box with records and checks was thrown away. William Beasley, director of the center helped perform an in house audit. It was found that a number of checks had been written to Ricky Spell. An authorized C.P.A. checked the audit and proved the findings correct. Since then the Stevens Center has been repaid with interest. The Board of Trustees of the Center have taken steps to prevent this from happening again.

1. A dual signature on all checks.
2. A bookkeeper
3. A separate treasurer
4. A yearly audit with reports to the association.

Frank assured the association that the center is financially sound -- it is broadening its financial base. He assured the association that the director has not been involved in any inpropriety and the center is in good hands.

Frank mentioned that the Board of Trustees had tried to handle this matter in compliance with the scriptural teachings of a person taken in a fault.

John Robinson was recognized for the message. Since the hour was late, he gave his text and the outline of his message. His message was the indwelling Spirit.

John Robinson dismissed with prayer.

EVANGELISM COMMITTEE REPORT

A portion of the purpose of your Evangelism Committee is to "promote the work of Evangelism in the association in cooperation with the association."

There has been a growing desire for our churches to experience a renewal of concern and compassion for the lost of our area. We are reminded of our Lord's primary purpose in coming to this earth in Luke 19:10 where He declared, "for the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost."

We request that we join together in a corporate effort to demonstrate to our area that the churches of the New South River Baptist Association are caring and committed to the mission and ministry of our Lord. That of reaching the lost for whom He died.

To assist in this cooperative effort your Evangelism Committee recommends that we join together in having a Bailey Smith Crusade at the Cumberland County Arena, October 4-8, 1992.

We are fully aware that involvement in such an event is totally voluntary and that participation will be according to the desires of each local church and at a level with which they are comfortable.

A budget for this event has not been discussed on a local level. A speculative guess is in the neighborhood of $35,000. However, the budget will be drawn up by local people and the actual budget will depend to a great degree on the promotion and publicity of the event. A disclosure of receipts will be available. There will not be any additional expense to the New South River Baptist Association, other than the amount in the proposed budget for 1992. In the unlikely event the necessary funds are not raised the activities will be curtailed according to the funds available.

The budget will be raised by a banquet and contributions from individuals and churches.

While we realize that not all our churches can and will be involved in the actual crusade we do request, if this recommendation is adopted, the prayers and input of all our churches.

Recommended by Evangelism Committee,
New South River Baptist Association

Randy White, Chairman

PROCEEDINGS
Fall Semi-Annual Session
New South River Baptist Association
Roseboro, First Baptist Church
October 24, 1991

Carl Garbo opened the session by leading in singing of "He Keeps Me Singing." Dougald McLaurin sang "I Found the Lily in My Valley."

Ira Sutton, Vice-Moderator called the meeting to order at 7:05 P.M.

Jeff Porter, pastor of Mt. Pisgah church led in the devotion. He read from Romans 12:11-12.

Johnson Gupton recorder, announced that as of this time we have registered 141 messengers, 6 alternates and 14 visitors making a total of 161 in attendance. He moved that this along with those who will register later constitute this session of our association. The motion was seconded by David Weeks and the motion carried.

Our new Director of Mission, Dr. and Mrs. Ben Gault were presented to the session.

Visitors present were John Roberson, representing Campbell University and David Hammond, our speaker from Brazil.

Associational Ministries: William Beasley, Director of the Stevens Center mentioned his report is found on page 80 of the book of reports. He thanked those present for their assistance in this ministry. He presented Glen Young, the resident manager at the home, who spoke of his year at the home.

Administrative business and reports: Dr. Gault presented the budget in the absence of Thurman Smith. A motion to approve the budget as printed and as ammended on Tuesday was made by John Sykes, a member of the committee. David Weeks seconded the motion. Following a discussion, the motion passed.

Dr. Gault spoke of an attempt to pay off the debt on the associational office building and have a note burning celebration at the spring session. As of October 23, we owed $12,662.28. We have two payments left this eyar. By the end of the year, we will owe less than $12,000.

Another idea proposed by Dr. Gault was of looking into having a Mission Corp Volunteer to come to our association. The Home Mission Board feels that it can find a person to work with numerically smaller churches. An application has been filled out through the North Carolina Baptist State Convention which will go on to the Home Mission Board. A projected date for such a person to come is March 1992.

Miscellaneous business:

Johnson Gupton presented the committee report. He made a motion that the report be approved. The motion was seconded and passed. Mr. Gupton made the motion that Ray Ross, Wilma Lee, Roger Jackson and Evelyn Taylor serve a term ending in 1992 instead of 1993 on the Committee on Committees to get the correct number rotating off each year. The motion was seconded and passed.

Richard Brown made the following motion: "I move that the minutes of the 68th Annual Meeting of the New South River Baptist Association be hereby dedicated to the memory of Rev. Charles A. Stevens, and that a page of our next associational annual report be dedicated to his memory." The motion was seconded and passed.

Dr. Gault was asked to lead in prayer as we remembered those who have passed on this year.

Richard Brown gave the explanation why Ira Sutton did not step up to Moderator position, having served as moderator.

Dana Slack, pastor of Roseboro gave the welcome.

Carl Garbo led in singing of "Wonderful Grace of Jesus."

Associational Programs report given by Larry Padgett. The media center report is found on page 5 of the book of reports.

Ira Sutton gave the Discipleship Training report. He emphasized a Deacon Training Workshop to be held at the Associational Office on November 16 beginning at 9:00 A.M.

David Weeks gave the V.B.S. report. He asked for those who had not sent in their reports to do so. Carl Garbo spoke of the excellent clinic held by the V.B.S. team at Stedman.

M Night was mentioned. It will be held at two locations this year.

Particia Naylor spoke about Mission friends. Mission Friends is for children from birth - 5 years of age. A rally is being planned for this group in the spring.

Tommy Davis, Discipleship Training Director was recognized to receive a plaque for awards received by members of Peter's Creek Baptist Church.

Ira Sutton introduced our speakers.

The choir from Roseboro First blessed us with music.

Billy Thompson, a member of Hope Mills First, spoke of his experience in Sao Paulo, Brazil.

David Hammond, a missionary on furlough form Brazil spoke of his ministry there.

Ira Sutton read a letter from our outgoing moderator, Billy Ray West, to the session.

Bryan Lee, new moderator and John Kennedy, Vice-moderator were recognized. The gavel was turned over to Bryan Lee. He made some remarks.

Dana Slack led in the prayer of benediction.

Motion:

In reference to page 25 of the 1990 Associational Annual, I would like to make a motion that Ray Ross, Mrs. Wilma Lee, Roger Jackson and Mrs. Evelyn Taylor serve a term ending in 1992 instead of 1993 as printed.

Johnson Gupton,
Committee on Committees

Motion:

I move that the minutes of the 68th Annual Meeting of the New South River Baptist Association be hereby dedicated to the memory of Rev. Charles A. Stevens and that a page of our next association's annual report be dedicated to his memory.

Richard Brown

Letter from Moderator:

Dear Members:

I apologize for being unable to attend the Fall, 1991 Annual Sessions of the New South River Baptist Association. I am presently in Wisconsin teaching an insurance seminar, and again, I apologize for the scheduling conflict.

The purpose of this correspondence is to express a word of thanks to the many people throughout the Association who have assisted me during the past four years as Vice-Moderator and subsequently as Moderator.

We have experienced major changes over the past two years with the resignation of two of our directors and the retirement and death of our Director of Missions, Charles Stevens. The response of volunteerism from our members, both pastors and lay persons alike, have been phenomenal. I have received many calls of support from people asking what can they do to assist the New south River Baptist Association during these changing times.

I would like to personally thank my Vice-Moderator, Mr. Ira Sutton, who has been the quiet hero during this transition period. There have been many times I have leaned on Ira for his advice and support, and I have never called him for assistance that he did not readily reply. Furthermore, I would like to thank Mr. Thurman Smith, our Finance Chairman, for his committee's work for their work on reorganizing our budget and financial procedures. I would also like to express a debt of gratitude to Richard Brown, my Administrative Chairman, to Larry Padgett, my Church Development chairman and to Frank Davis, our Christian and Church Ministries Director. These people have rallied with a true spirit of volunteerism to assist our association during these transitional times.

I relinquish the chairmanship to our new Moderator with the upmost optimism for the future of the New South River Baptist Association. I am extremely excited over the capabilities of our new Director of Missions, Dr. Benjamin Gault, and would like to express my gratitude to Larry Knight and the search committee for their recommendation of this great individual. The New South River Baptist Association has grown financially from a deficit situation and should strive to continually remain financially stable. As aforereferenced, volunteerism is at an all-time high with more people being involved than I can remember in past years.

Your continued financial support, prayers, and volunteerism will be greatly needed as we embark upon new programs in the future. I encourage each member of this association to learn from the past and to direct its focus on the future.

Again, may I say thanks for your loving support.

Yours truly,

Bill West
Outgoing Moderator

Attachment #3

The Minister's Conference of the New South River Baptist Association meeting on Monday, March 16, 1992, voted unanimously to recommend that the New South River Baptist Association go on record as being in opposition to the blessing of any homosexual union or licensing or ordaining a practicing homosexual into the gospel ministry, or giving approval in either an implicit or explicit manner that this is an acceptable lifestyle. Such a practice is contrary to Southern Baptist understanding of the Scriptures.

We also request that all Christians pray for those who are caught up in this deviant lifestyle and seek to minister to them in a redemptive manner.

We further recommend that this statement be published in "The Communicator"and sent as a letter to the editor of the Fayetteville Observer.

PROPOSAL from the
Spring Lake Baptist Mission Center Task Force

Observations

1. The Spring Lake Baptist Mission Center has been operating successfully for 7 years.

2. The Center is noted for its excellent work in meeting the many needs of the Spring Lake community. It is an effective tool of witness that must not be lost.

3. The Center's work has expanded beyond the scope of the ability of First Baptist of Spring Lake to support it.

4. The New South River Baptist Association of Churches is providing the major bulk of the financial support for the Center.

5. The Center has no current indebtedness and operates on a cash on hand basis.

6. The future viability of the Center will be greatly enhanced if it were operated as a ministry of the New South River Baptist Association of Churches rather than the First Baptist Church of Spring Lake.

7. The First Baptist Church of Spring Lake is willing to allow the Center be become a direct ministry of the New South River Baptist Association of Churches.

8. The Spring Lake Baptist Mission Center is not a mission or a church. It is a ministry to persons in need.

9. The Spring Lake Baptist Mission Center is a separate entity from the various chapels in the Spring Lake community.

Recommendations

1. We recommend that the Spring Lake Baptist Mission Center become an official ministry of the New South River Baptist Association of Churches.

2. We recommend that the name of the Center be called the Spring Lake Baptist Mission Center - A Ministry of the New South River Baptist Association of Churches.

3. We recommend that the director of the Center, Charles Rawlings, be allowed to continue to guide the Center's work under the supervision of the Executive Director of the New South River Baptist Association of Churches.

4. We recommend that a standard rotating committee be formed to assist the director in the work of the Center.

5. We recommend that the Rev. Bob Cloninger be named as chairman of this committee for the first 3 years in order to assure a smooth transfer of authority and direction.

6. We recommend that all finances for the Center be handled through the New South River Baptist Association of Churches.

7. We recommend that the liability insurance of the New South River Baptist Association of Churches be increased to cover the Center. This would be an annual increase of $100.

8. We recommend that the current annual budget of $29,422 be the operating budget for the remainder of 1993.

9. We recommend that the Director of the Spring Lake Baptist Mission Center be put in charge of the day to day operations of the Center's work.
